

Mud packs

Wet, cool, thick, strong & packed in the wrinkles, dust covered mud hardens enough to protect from bug bites and hot sun.

Artwork by Kelly Turnbull

Sound Ranges

Elephants' trumpet calls can range over 10 octaves, making sounds too low to hear, all the way up to huge roars!

Artwork by Kelly Turnbull

Shared Wisdom

Sometimes an elephant male will be apprentice to an adult elephant or a young mother will follow a wise grandmother.

Artwork by Kelly Turnbull

Out of View

When a calf needs some time to themselves they will hide under adults or will rest in tall grasses and use a contact-call if lost.

Artwork by Kelly Turnbull

Priorities

The center of life for the herd are the calves who will sleep deeply under their shelter.

Artwork by Kelly Turnbull

Recharging

Lying down for a couple of hours gives an elephant a chance to recharge while the herd keeps an eye out.

Artwork by Kelly Turnbull